

No images? Click here

Planning a healthy community starts here.

Accessibility Planning Through an Equity Len

So, your municipality has created an accessibility plan. Now what? In June 2021 the Government of BC passed legislation that requires more than 750 public sector organizations – including local governments and health authorities – to establish accessibility plans. This article explains how an Equity Lens can be applied during the implementation of these new plans.

Read More